

Andrew Co is a large listed company financed by both equity and debt.

In which of the following areas of financial management will the impact of working capital management be smallest?

- A Liquidity management
- B Interest rate management
- C Management of relationship with the bank
- D Dividend policy