

Which TWO of the following statements relating to management information are TRUE?

- A. There is usually a legal requirement for the information to be produced
- B. It may be presented in monetary or non-monetary terms
- C. No strict rules govern the way in which the information is presented
- D. It is produced for parties external to the organisation